

DISCIPLESHIP

Old English
discipul, from Latin discipulus,
student ;from discere, to learn;

Mike Raiter

About our Speaker...

Michael is the Principal of the Bible College of Victoria. Born in England, his family migrated to Australia in the mid 1960s. After graduating from Wollongong University in 1976, he started a career as a high school teacher. In 1978 he went to teach at Murree Christian School in Pakistan with the Church Missionary Society, where he met his wife, Sarah, the daughter of American missionaries. After completing theological studies at Sydney's Moore Theological College and a stint serving on its faculty in the late 1980s, Michael, Sarah and their young family returned to Pakistan to work in theological education with Interserve for seven and a half years. In 1997 Michael, Sarah and their four children returned to Moore Theological College, where Michael was head of the Department of Mission until the end of 2005. Michael has written several books, including Stirrings of the Soul (Matthias Media 2003), which was awarded the 2004 Christian Book of the Year Award. Michael's hobbies include cryptic crosswords, crime novels and walks with his wife.

About the talks....

Mike will be taking us on the road with Jesus Christ. Through Luke's account of Jesus' travels, we'll follow the sandal-clad footsteps of the man from Nazareth, and hear his call to true discipleship: an unswerving, thoroughgoing and whole-hearted dependence on the Lord Jesus. A discipleship that impacts every dimension of our lives and propels us into service, ministry and mission.

RADICAL